Media Coordinator Application Details

Media Coordinator interviews will be open to any Marching Knights who have been a part of the Marching Knights during the 2024 season.

Round One audition will consist of the following:

- Filling out the application and submitting it on time

Round Two Audition

- Those selected for an Interview based on their application will be notified via email.
- Sign up for Interview time via link sent in email
- If applicable/available, have some samples of work related to the position you might have (Graphics, videos, etc).
- Interviews will be with Mr. Schreier via Zoom.

Special Note: MKMCs will be invited to attend certain leadership events/meetings, but will not be required to attend them, unless something special is specified. They will be expected to attend staff camp, but will have a different schedule than the section leaders/drum majors and will be working on creating plans and assets to be used throughout the season. MKMCs will not be required to attend orientation events over the summer, but are welcome to participate/help if you would like.
